Civil Liberties, Human Rights & EU law

Thomas O'Leary for Judicial Review ([2020] CSOH 81)

Instructed for the second respondents who were convened by amendment on an expedited timetable. The petitioner alleged breaches of statutory duty and of articles 5 and 14 ECHR. Successfully argued that the petitioner's case against the second respondents was irrelevant.

BC & Ors for Judicial Review ([2019] CSOH 48; 2019 SLT 875; 2019 GWD 23-366)

Instructing solicitor representing the respondent Chief Constable in this judicial review. The petitioners claimed the Chief Constable's decision in relation to the use of messages sent via WhatsApp and discovered in the course of criminal investigations into other individuals breached their article 8 Convention rights in terms of the Human Rights Act 1998.

Chief Constable v AR, Alloa Sheriff Court (2017)

As solicitor advocate, represented the Chief Constable at debate in this application for a Risk of Sexual Harm Order. Successfully resisted an argument that the application breached the respondent's rights under article 6(2) of the ECHR as the case was based on events for which the accused had been prosecuted and acquitted.

Public Law

Ross Dickson for Judicial Review ([2018] CSOH 19; 2018 SLT 316; 2018 GWD 9-109)

Instructing solicitor for the respondent Chief Constable in a judicial review in which the petitioner sought review of a decision to dismiss his appeal against a finding of misconduct without an appeal hearing.

Polley v West Lothian Council and AIB (Outer House – [2014] CSOH 98; 2014 GWD 21-391; Inner House – [2015] CSIH 19; 2015 GWD 9-160)

Instructing solicitor representing WLC. The pursuer sought reduction of an award of sequestration, a charge for payment and summary warrants taken in respect of council tax arrears. The case was dismissed at debate. The pursuer reclaimed to the Inner House and the reclaiming motion was ultimately dismissed.

David Cameron v Chief Constable, Fort William Sheriff Court (2018 SLT (Sh Ct) 75; 2018 GWD 8-107)

As solicitor - conducted this appeal against the revocation of a firearms certificate. Concerned the risk posed by the pursuer's family members.

MLM v City of Edinburgh Council (2012 SLT (Sh Ct) 38)

As solicitor, represented the appellant in this appeal against the council's refusal to grant an out of catchment placing request made by the appellant in respect of her son.

RMck v Chief Constable (2016 SLT (Sh Ct) 148)

As solicitor, acted on behalf the Chief Constable and conducted this appeal before the Sheriff Principal. The appeal concerned the Sheriff's refusal to grant an interim Risk of Sexual Order.

Health & Safety

HMA v Chief Constable, Police Service of Scotland (2021)

Instructed as junior counsel for the Chief Constable in this health & safety prosecution.
